SEMINAR ON MOUNTAIN GOATS OF BITTERROOT
SET FOR MONDAY, MARCH 1, AT UM

MISSOULA--

Bruce Smith, a graduate student at the University of Montana, will present a seminar entitled "Winter Range Distribution and Habitat Preference of Mountain Goats in the Bitterroot Mountains, Montana" at noon Monday, March 1, at the University. The seminar will be in room 207 of the Health Science Building.

The seminar is free of charge and the public is invited to attend.

Smith will discuss the distribution and habits of mountain goats during the winter months as he observed them in the Bitterroot Mountains for 2½ years. He will use slides to illustrate the speech.

The seminar is given in partial fulfillment for Smith's master of science degree in wildlife biology. Smith is currently working with the Montana Cooperative Wildlife Research Unit based at UM.
